

Say No To New Year's Resolutions and Yes to GOALS!

Instead of setting resolutions this year, we should be serious about setting goals. Here are some random thoughts on goals and goal setting. I hope you can use them to inspire you to set and attain your goals this year.

You seldom hit anything unless you shoot at it!

It is useless to carry the ball until you know where the goal line is located!

There is no sense aiming for a goal when you have no arrow in your bow!

You better plan for your future. After all, that is where you'll spend the rest of your life!

Failure is not missing the goal. Failure is aiming too low!

A genius is that person who shoots at something no one else sees--and hits it!

If you don't know where you are going, you may miss it when you get there!

Your life can't go according to plan if you have no plan!

People are like thumb tacks. They are useful if they have a good head and are pointed in the right direction!

Success has little to do with speed but much to do with direction!

The world can certainly use more vision and less television!
